New members for the interRAI New Zealand Governance Board

I am pleased to welcome five new members to the interRAI New Zealand Governance Board.

Our Board, in its third year, is established and functioning well. As with any Board, it is good governance practice to renew and refresh, and I am looking forward to new ideas and the perspectives these new Board members bring.

At the same time, I would also like to thank outgoing Board members Dr Judith Davey and Dr Chris Hendry for their contributions and commitment to interRAI.
